

“Preventing Conflict through Integrating Diversity: Challenges for the Second Decade of the OSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities”
The Hague, January 31- February 1, 2003.

Friday 31 January 2003

Location: Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Bezuidenhoutseweg 67, The Hague

- 19:00                    Keynote speech, Daan Everts, Personal Representative of the OSCE Chairman-in-Office
- 19:30                    Reception

Saturday 1 February 2003

Location: Debatterij, Juffrouw Idastraat 2

- 09:30 - 09:45            Welcome and Introduction, Ambassador Rolf Ekéus, OSCE
High Commissioner on National Minorities
- 09:45 – 10:15            On the horizon: potential ethnic conflicts
Chair: Rolf Ekéus
Discussants: István Gyarmati and Kevin Clements
- 10:15 – 11:00            Discussion
- 11:00 – 11:15            coffee break
- 11:15 – 11:45            Minority Rights and Security: A delicate balance
Chair: Alyson Bailes
Discussants: Gérard Stoudmann and Gudmundur Alfredsson
- 11:45 – 12:45            Discussion
- 12:45 – 14:00            buffet lunch, at the Debatterij
- 14:00 – 14:30            Integration in an Enlarged Europe: new minority challenges
Chair: Edward Mortimer
Discussants: Beate Winkler and Wilhelm Höynck
- 14:30 – 16:15            Discussion
- 16:15 – 16:30            coffee break
- 16:30 – 17:30            Final Reflections
Chair: Rolf Ekéus
- 19:00                    Dinner, Restaurant Aubergerie, Nieuwe Schoolstraat 17

Dinner remarks: Max van der Stoel